

Dear Yoga Students

Please note that classes cancelled due to snow (weather) can be made up during the current session or the next. Or alternately, in the case of a cancelled class, a credit can be given when paying for your next session if you are unable to make up the class. Either way is fine. Those who attend with the "unlimited" plan, we will issue a credit for any cancelled classes.

We apologize for any inconvenience.

Any questions about this, please let us know. Thank you!

Namaste,

Dean & Rebecca
